

I Won't Forget That Day

(music and lyrics by Antti Nissilä)

I woke up late, I missed the train,
ran to work in a cold November rain,
just to know, my latest files were deleted by mistake last night.

I thought, I'd lose my nerve real soon.
Well, I lost my wallet in the afternoon.
Oh, tell me there's a way
to forget this day.

But 6 PM my day was made,
and all misfortune seemed to fade away.
Then, standing in a full-packed tram,
you said to me: "Don't give a damn!
If luck does not always find your door,
Let it try once more!"

We ended up in a small café.
We talked about it all, and yeah,
well, after that, hmm, I could say:
I won't forget that day.
I won't forget that day.
I won't forget that day.
